What is Sin?

Sin is nothing but (1) failure of human to perform duties and responsibilities to each other and (2) failure of human to acknowledge God for their existence and for everything they do –“For the God, By the God, Of the God”.

All human sins fall under one or both of the above categories. Human’s duties and responsibilities to each other can be categorized as follows

- Duties and responsibilities of husband to wife.
- Duties and responsibilities of wife to husband.
- Duties and responsibilities of parents to children
- Duties and responsibilities of children to parents.
- Duties and responsibilities of brothers to sisters.
- Duties and responsibilities of sisters to brothers.
- Duties and responsibilities of in-laws to in-laws.
- Duties and responsibilities of teachers to students.
- Duties and responsibilities of students to teachers.
- Duties and responsibilities of government to citizens.
- Duties and responsibilities of citizens to government.
- Duties and responsibilities of boss to workers.
- Duties and responsibilities of workers to boss.

Thus it appears that in every sphere of life, there exists the duties and responsibilities to one another. Failure to fulfill these duties and responsibilities constitute a sin per God’s constitution.

Diagnosis of Sin:

How does one know what sin did one do?

One can find what sin did one do by worshipping, praying, meditation and reminiscing what activities one did in the preceding days, weeks and months and analyzing if one’s work fell under one of the above-mentioned categories of sin.

Treatment of Sin:

During prayer one should not only ask “Forgive my Sin” but also ask “What Sin did I do so I don’t do it again?”

Result of Sin:

While the human judiciary system provides punishment for wrongdoing by fine, jail or death sentence, the spiritual judiciary system teaches human for wrongdoing by one or more of the three Ds - Disease, Disability and Death.
